Press Release

Registered Sex Offender Violation: On February 4, 2022, detectives from the Talbot County Sheriff's Office arrested Jah'Mere Elijahon Foster, 23, of Trappe, Maryland. Jah'Mere Foster is an active Tier III lifetime sex offender registrant with the Talbot County Sheriff's Office. On February 2, 2022, Foster was mandated to report to the Talbot County Sheriff's Office for a quarterly re-registration appointment but he failed to report on that date. On February 4, 2022, Foster was taken into custody without incident and charged with failing to comply with registration requirements. Foster was transported to the Talbot County Central Booking Unit for processing and an initial appearance before a District Court Commissioner. Foster was held without bond at the Talbot County Detention Center.

Foster was charged with the following charges:

- Violating the conditions of the lifetime sexual offender supervision
- Failing to re-register by deadline
