PRESS RELEASE

Recognition Award: On October 21, 2022, Sheriff Joe Gamble and Orphans Court Judge David Wheeler presented Rodney Spring, Spring and Associates of Easton, MD, with a personalized wooden flag for his support of the Talbot County Sheriff's Office drug education and prevention efforts.

"A few months ago, Judge David Wheeler contacted me stating he wanted to make a flag for someone in the community who was a great supporter of the Sheriff's Office efforts to educate our youth. Rodney Spring, owner of Spring and Associates was the obvious choice"...stated Sheriff Gamble.

Mr. Spring has been a supporter of our drug education efforts through Talbot Goes Purple since its inception, donating thousands of dollars to educate our children at both our public and private schools. He has been there with us through COVID, when donations were at an all-time low. There is no way Talbot Goes Purple could survive without his financial assistance. Not only has he been a supporter to Sheriff Gamble's effort to educate the community, but he has assisted many affected individuals in need in our community. Sheriff Gamble and our community are so grateful for his continued efforts to make Talbot County drug free and a safer place to raise our families.
