PRESS RELEASE

The Talbot County Sheriff's Office would like to welcome Deputy Flaggs and Deputy Moon as the newest sworn members of the Talbot County Sheriff's Office. Deputies Flaggs and Moon entered the 90th Session of the Eastern Shore Criminal Justice Academy on January 4, 2023, graduating on June 16, 2023. Deputies Flaggs and Moon are continuing their training while patrolling Talbot County with their assigned field training officers.

Deputy Darrin Moon is a resident of Talbot County, graduating from Easton High School in 2019. Deputy Moon joined the United States Army in October 2019, and is currently a member of the Army Reserves.

Deputy Alexander Flaggs is a resident of Dorchester County, graduating from North Dorchester High School in 2017. Deputy Flaggs continued his education at Chesapeake Community College, transferring to the University of Maryland, College Park where he received his Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice.

Sheriff Gamble and the Talbot County Sheriff's Office are pleased and excited to welcome these two young deputies to our ranks. We look forward to their future accomplishments and enthusiasm while helping to keep our community safe!
